

REGISTERED – an applicant who created an account in the IRK system (without completing the next steps).

CANDIDATE – status following after Registered. An applicant who filled in all required information in their IRK profile, uploaded all required scans of documents and paid the recruitment fee in time and to the assigned bank account.

The change from „Registered” to „Candidate” takes place after the applicant’s documents have been reviewed and accepted and the application fee has been credited to the correct account.

An applicant with this status should wait for the announcement of the shortlist of the candidates admitted conditionally after the Admission Board’s meeting.

CONDITIONALLY ACCEPTED – status following after Candidate. An applicant who has been positively assessed by the Admission Board and included in the shortlist of the candidates admitted conditionally.

Conditionally accepted candidates are obliged to:

upload the signed agreement about payment,

pay the tuition fee in the required amount,

submit originals of required documents.

ACCEPTED – status following after Conditionally Accepted. An applicant who met all requirements and has been accepted as a student. An applicant with this status will officially become a student after signing the Oath at the beginning of the academic year.

UNACCEPTED – An applicant who has not been accepted by the Admission Board. An applicant with this status cannot further participate in the application process.

PENDING - status following after Candidate. An applicant who is on the waiting list, waiting for the final decision of the Admission Board. Applicant with this status will be considered again during the next Admission Board meeting.

OUT OF RANKING – an applicant who did not meet all of the requirements to become a Candidate after registering, for example: did not upload all documents, uploaded documents that could not be accepted, did not pay the application fee in time, etc. An applicant with this status will not be considered for admission.

RESIGNATION – An applicant who resigned from the studies. An applicant can resign either by sending a resignation form or by not fulfilling the admission requirements during any stage of the admission process (i.e. not uploading required documents, not paying the fee in time, etc.).
